By Big T and the Oaktones

February '05

Tempo:126

Intro: C7

Chorus:

C7

Standing in line for Government cheese

F7

Why should I have to work Why should I have to please

C7

I deserve my share I made the cut

G

C

I can't change, make room for my butt

Verse 1:

C

Am7

Winning this job was the best thing for me

F

G

G7

Why pay one when you can pay three

C

Am7

Taxes are high but I vote for more

F

G

C7

I deserve my share I'm a government whore

Chorus:

C7

Standing in line for Government cheese

F7

Why should I have to work Why should I have to please

C7

I deserve my share I made the cut

G

F

C

I can't change, make room for my butt

Verse 2:

C

Am7

Government cheese doesn't taste so good

F

G

G7

I hate my job I'm so misunderstood

C

Am7

Keep taking those curds, keep taking that way

F

G

C7

The problem's never "Us", it's always "They"

Bridge: Dmaj7 Emaj7
No chance to be valued, doing good is just a waste

Dmaj7 Fmaj7 Gmaj7 C7
You can even come in drunk and you can never, be, replaced!

Chorus: C7
Standing in line for Government cheese

F7
Why should I have to work Why should I have to please

C7
I deserve my share I made the cut

G F C
I can't change, make room for my butt

Lead: G G7 F G C7

Verse 3: C Am7
Private sector cheese is so hard to obtain

F G G7
You gotta' to use your back. You gotta' use your brain

C Am7
But when the workday's done you've made a contribution

F G C7
You're Not the problem You are the solution

Chorus: C7
Standing in line for Government cheese

F7
Why should I have to work Why should I have to please

C7
I deserve my share I made the cut

G G7 F G C7
I can't change, so you'd better make room for, my huge ASS
